Agent for the Democrat in Jeffersonville.
Mr. Stenberg, our former agent in Jeffersonville, has disposed of his business to J. H. Padlock, of that city, who will receive all orders for the Democrat that may be left at his news and proffered depot, on the northeast corner of Spring and Front streets.

To Country Printers.
Having furnished our jobbing department with the latest style of type, and a large quantity of second-hand material has been thrown out, most of which would be suitable for a country printer, who, without cost, will very cheaply make room for new improvements. One large hand-press, in good working order; one iron card press, in good order; a set of metal and wood type cases, and a large quantity of type, suitable for a country printer, who can be bought at a fraction over the price of old material.

The Trade of Louisville.
The trade of Louisville is on the constant increase, and a fact which no one can presume to deny. The city is now for one month, and with the South our city will, when all trade opens, be the great center of attraction for the merchants of the entire South, and our merchants will be kept constantly busy in fulfilling the various orders which will come in from that quarter. It is not only the constant increase in the number of steamers which ply between here and the Crescent City, and we look for a return of the good old times when boats arrived from and departed for New Orleans laden with the products of the South and Southwest. Our merchants are prepared to furnish goods as cheap as in other cities, and ship them as expeditiously, and at as low rates as any city in the Union.

The trade of the city has been on the constant increase, and we doubt if our oldest business men can point to a summer when as large a business has been transacted as during the summer just passed, and yet as we have said before, business is on the constant increase. In addition to the increase in our mercantile pursuits a number of manufacturers are to be established here, which will not only render Louisville the great commercial hub of the West, but the manufacturing emporium of the West. The tobacco trade of Louisville alone is as heavy as any branch of trade in any city in the West, amounting to nearly $4,000,000. Our dry goods, drug, boot and shoe, hat and cap stores, and in fact every branch of trade has increased to a great extent. Within the past week or two merchants have been here from Cincinnati to purchase different manufactured articles, as they were enabled to obtain them cheaper than they could manufacture them.

Merchants' Exchange.—A meeting of the Board of Trade will be held to-day at noon. Reports from the Freight Committee, &c., will be made. A full attendance is requested, as many matters of interest will be brought up of vital importance to the commerce and trade of the city.

We are glad to announce that the Nashville Railroad Directory have established freight agents at nearly all the points along the main stem and branches of their road, in accordance with the suggestions of the Board of Trade, a full list of which can be seen at the rooms of the Exchange.

Gent's Furnishing Goods.—Mr. Eben Frothingham, who is well known to many citizens of Louisville, has recently established himself at No. 40 Main street, opposite the old Galt House premises, where he has a very choice selection of gentlemen's furnishing goods. We have seen a better assortment of choice goods this season, and we are sure that gentlemen will find it to their advantage to give Mr. F. a call. He occupies a portion of the establishment of Mr. Heiskill, and will take pleasure in showing his goods.

Magistrates' Court.—We have before mentioned the robbery of Daniel Brincoe, and the two-mile horse, and the arrest of Thos. Ridge, Jos. Hindman, James Law and Geo. Ridge as being the authors of the robbery. Thos. Ridge was held in the other three in $500 each as bail to answer at the Circuit Court. The case is now being investigated by Squires Matlack & Clements.

Robbery.—After the close of the day on Saturday John Alfriend sold the inner of the two-mile horse, Robby, at public auction, for $1,000. He was the property of Benson Ormsby, of Jeffersonville, and was purchased by J. W. Rockney, of this city.

Robbery.—Saturday night the room of A. W. Green, at the store of Mr. Smith, on Seventh street, near Walnut, was entered and robbed of a small gold watch and heavy chain. No clue has been obtained as to who committed the robbery.

Meeting of the Court of Common Pleas.—The first term of this court, for the year ending on the 1st of January, 1866, was held this morning. During this session a number of interesting cases will be disposed of.

Amusements.
WOODS' THEATER.—The new play, "The Millionaire," will commence to-night, and will be the most interesting play of the season. The plot is a comedy, and is full of interest and humor. The play is a comedy, and is full of interest and humor. The play is a comedy, and is full of interest and humor.

At a meeting of the Louisville Tailors' Protective Society of Louisville, Ky., held October 2, 1865, it was unanimously resolved that the thanks be tendered to the officers and members of the Philadelphia Tailors' Society for the kind and fraternal attention paid to Mr. T. C. Spencer, delegate from this society to the Philadelphia Annual Convention, held in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 1st and 2nd inst.

The Murder in Trimble County.—The parties committed to answer.
In the murder of last Wednesday we gave the full particulars of the four murder of Samuel Norton on Sunday last, in Trimble county, near Milton, Kentucky, and the arrest in this city of Thomas and Jackson, two brothers, as the authors of the crime. On Thursday morning Officer Ryan, who was with the two murderers to Trimble county to have the case investigated. He arrived at Madison in the afternoon and had the two criminals placed in jail for the night. While confined there they were "flogging their chains with a will," and were "concocting in the kitchen of the jail."

Homeopathic Remedies.—The Homeopathic system of medical practice has been the subject of much discussion in the past few years. It is a system of medicine which is based on the principle of "like cures like." It is a system of medicine which is based on the principle of "like cures like." It is a system of medicine which is based on the principle of "like cures like."

President's Office, L. & N. R. R.—The Louisville, Oct. 6, 1865.
Rev. John D. Matthews—Sir: Your favor of the 4th inst. is received. In reply, we state that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad will comply with the terms of its application to purchase different manufactured articles, as they were enabled to obtain them cheaper than they could manufacture them.

General Court-Martial.—By special order No. 18, issued by the President of Kentucky, it is directed that during the absence of Major W. H. Cloy, Judge Advocate, Major Clifford Thomas, 5th United States colored cavalry, assumes charge of the office and will perform the duties of Judge Advocate of the Department.

Court Saturday concluded the cases of John M. Boyd and Robert Sprank, which were adjourned from Friday for argument. These men were tried for the commission of larceny a short time ago. The court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

Sentence to be hung.—Some time last winter old man Hermann, who drove stage between Evansville and New Harmony, Ind., was killed near Blairsville, Ind., by a stagecoach. The case was arrested and committed to prison. His trial was held on the charge of murder. Garis has been in prison ever since, until brought out for trial at the Circuit Court which met in Mount Vernon last Monday. The trial closed on Wednesday, the jury convicting the prisoner of murder in the first degree. He was sentenced to be hung on the first Friday of December.

Mission Farm for Sale.—We invite public attention to this beautiful and fertile farm, which is situated on the Ohio river, and is one of the most fertile and beautiful farms in Central Missouri, and as very desirable in every particular. Those going from Kentucky to see it, after getting to St. Louis, should take the Pacific railroad to Sedalia, Missouri, where the sale is on the 1st day of November next, and will be public and without reserve.

Commission Merchant, Macon, Ga.—We take pleasure in introducing the attention of our readers to the card of Mr. A. P. Harris, who has established himself on Cherry street, Macon, Georgia, and is fully prepared to transact general business. He refers the public to the merchants of Macon. Make your consignments to Mr. Harris.

Hundreds of persons make application daily to be allowed to cross the bridge, which has just been completed over the Ohio river at Cincinnati, but all are refused, as the crossing would seriously interfere with the operations of the workmen.

Red Lead and Litharge.—KING'S COLLEGE, EXTRA RED LEAD and Litharge, landing from steamer "Champion" on the 1st inst. at 10 o'clock. For sale by ANDREW BUCHANAN & CO., 100 N. 3rd street.

Spoken Watch.—I HAVE IN STOCK A DELICATELY MADE pocket watch, which is a fine specimen of the art of watchmaking. It is a fine specimen of the art of watchmaking. It is a fine specimen of the art of watchmaking.

At a late hour Saturday night Officers Spaulding and McFadden, assisted by a number of other officers, were on duty at the Jeffersonville, Ind., will give a ball at their hall on Thursday night, the 12th inst.
